

LECTOR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Lectors will read from the lectern on the south side of the Sanctuary.
- When there is special music listed between the lessons, please announce this as written in the bulletin for the benefit of those worshipping remotely.
- A copy of the lesson will be on the Lectern each Sunday. Copies will also be emailed or mailed to you in advance.
- Make sure you turn the mic on before you begin and turn it off again when you are finished. Announce each reading with "The first (second) reading comes from ..." (or similar words). Then, close each reading with, "The Word of the Lord."
- For the traditional service, if the Psalm is read responsively, instruct the congregation that you will read the odd verses, they will respond with the even, and the refrain will be read together. Please read the congregation's part as well for the benefit of those worshipping remotely.

Thank you for serving your Trinity family in this way! We greatly appreciate you!
